C. M. WOLF SELLS HIS BUSINESS TO YORK FIRM

Charles B. Wolf, president of the Wolf Supply company, 465 East Prospect street, York, announced today that the C. M. Wolf lumber company and warehouse on North Stratton street here will become part of the York concern's holdings with the opening of business on Thursday morning, April 1.

C. M. Wolf, who has had a general feed, coal and lumber business at the North Stratton street location for the last 40 years, will be affiliated with the new owners in an advisory capacity and will assist the company's new manager of the Gettysburg branch yard, Harry Trimpey.

The present personnel of the C. M. Wolf company will remain in the employ of the new owners, the announcement stated.

The warehouse here has been in the Wolf name since about 1880 when J. George Wolf and Sons were the owners. J. George Wolf was the grandfather of C. M. Wolf. A warehouse has been on the North Stratton street site since before the battle of Gettysburg. Before the Wolf family took it over, it was operated at various times by the late Judge Russell and the late James P. Bigham.

Founded In 1843

The new manager of the local warehouse, Mr. Trimpey, has been in the employ of the Wolf Supply company for 21 years and has 18 years of experience as a retail store manager. He and his family expect to move here in the near future.

The Wolf Supply company has headquarters in York with a branch yard, store and mill at Mt. Wolf, a coal yard and oil storage plant on Sherman street in York and a warehouse and builders' supply store at Wrightsville. The company was founded in 1843 and has expanded through seven generations of the Wolf family. It now has 100 employees. Earle L. Wolf is vice president in charge of operations, maintenance and repairs, and George H. Wolf, Sr., is vice president and treasurer. George H. Wolf, Jr., is a director and assistant secretary. William T. Wolf, son of Earle, is secretary and Charles S. Wolf, son of the president, is a member of the board of directors.

LOCAL SOLDIER IN BOMB UNIT

Staff Sergeant Orlo J. Plank, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Settle, 146 Hanover street, is an air crew member with the 341st Bomb Squadron, 97th Bomb Group, which will soon complete a temporary duty assignment at Eielson Air Force Base, Fairbanks, Alaska, and return to its permanent home base at Smoky Hill, Salina, Kan.

His organization has been training in long-range polar flights, Arctic navigational methods and aircraft maintenance under extreme cold conditions. The 97th is a member of the 15th Air Force, commanded by Maj. Gen. Leon W. Johnson, headquarters, Colorado Springs, Colo., and in turn is a member of the Strategic Air Command, headquarters, Washington, D. C., with Gen. George C. Kenney as over-all chief.

Known as "Kenney's Globe Trotters," the 97th, whose job is to train in and perfect the long-range flying type of mission, has, in the last several months, visited various countries over the globe, among them, South America, Germany, England, Scotland, Japan and Alaska.

The flights and performance of flying crews are proving the capabilities of the huge multi-engine bomber, the B-29. At the present time this organization has successfully completed 30 missions over the geographic North Pole and 30 over the magnetic pole.

Of their many outstanding records, a one-stop flight from Tokyo to Salina, Kan., by way of Anchorage, Alaska, is the most notable.

Admits Leaving Scene Of Mishap

P. M. Anderson, York Springs R. 1, signed a plea of guilty this morning before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident, and furnished $500 bail for sentence court. The charge was filed by state police of the Gettysburg sub-station following an accident last Friday night on the York Springs-Hampton road. Anderson is charged with hitting the car of Mrs. T. H. Hetherington, York Springs, and failing to stop.

FINED AT HARRISBURG

John Miller Albright, Gardners R. 2 was fined $100 and placed on probation for one year in Dauphin county court Monday on a charge of larceny.

BARN UNROOFED FOR THIRD TIME

The section surrounding the farm in Mt. Pleasant township owned by J. A. Stevens heirs is developing into the county's windiest spot, insurance adjusters are beginning to believe.

Three years ago the winds blew and the roof flew off the barn.

Two years ago the winds blew and the roof and gable end of the barn went flying.

Saturday the winds blew once more and this time the roof blew off the barn, the gable end of the barn was blown in and one-half of the roof of the house was ripped from its moorings and scattered over the landscape.

TRACTOR AND BALER CRUSH COUNTY BRIDGE

The Adams county commissioners will have to "cure that sinking feeling" which a Mr. Bowers of Tyrone township suffered Monday morning. Bowers hooked his tractor to a hay baler and started driving along a township road just off the Harrisburg-Gettysburg road, near Twin Bridges.

He drove the tractor across the bridge over the Conewago and had almost crossed the bridge with the tractor when he got "that sinking feeling." Looking around he saw the bridge collapsing in the middle.

Road Now Closed

When everything came to rest the tractor was on the east side of the bridge with its nose in the air; the baler was on the west half of the bridge with its end pointed upward. The center of the bridge was down in the creek.

Called immediately, Commissioner G. Ed. Taughinbaugh and Commissioners' Clerk Clarence C. Smith found that the concrete pier that supported the center had been washed out sometime prior to the arrival of the tractor, thus weakening the center of the bridge.

The tractor and baler were pulled out undamaged.

The road was closed off by the commissioners and arrangements are being completed to repair the bridge.

Borough Awarded Safety Certificate

Gettysburg has been awarded a certificate by the National Safety Council and the borough's name has been inscribed on the National Traffic Safety Contest honor roll, for completing the year 1947 without a traffic fatality within the borough limits.

The certificate and an accompanying letter were received by Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster. The certificate was issued "in recognition of its (Gettysburg's) accomplishment in completing the year (1947) without a fatal motor vehicle accident within the municipal limits."

The certificate came in an appropriate frame. The letter which accompanied the certificate said:

"Your city is now enrolled on the National honor roll. The award was voted by the committee of judges of the National Traffic Safety Contest, of which Thomas H. MacDonald, commissioner, Public Roads Administration, is chairman."

Boy Scout Leaders To Begin Training

Boy Scout leaders from Black Walnut, Round Top and Conewago districts will start a six-week training course this evening in the auditorium of the New Oxford Catholic school, it was announced today by Dr. Joseph Riley, training chairman for the Black Walnut district.

The course is intended specially for scoutmasters and assistants, and troop committee members but junior assistant scout leaders and senior patrol leaders may attend although they will not be eligible to receive credits for the course. The course is intended to aid the scouters in building troop programs and to qualify the leaders for the scoutmaster's key.

The training sessions will continue on Tuesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock.

HS ALUMNI TO MEET

An important meeting of the alumni council of the Gettysburg High School Alumni association will be held Wednesday, April 7, at 8 p.m. at the YWCA to plan for the annual banquet and dance for the 1948 graduating class and alumni reunion at the high school in May. Jay Schmidt is president of the alumni association and has called the meeting.

PAYS $25 FINE

Raymond Donald Cooper, Baltimore street, paid a fine of $25 and costs to Justice of the Peace Gerald Orndorff, Oxford township, on a charge of overloading his truck, state police of the Gettysburg sub-station, who filed the charge, said today.

TELLS ROTARY OF DENTISTRY'S EARLY TRIALS

"Dentistry has come a long way since treatment for an abscessed tooth consisted of slicing a mouse in half and holding half the mouse against the face," Dr. Granville R. Schultz, local dentist, pointed out Monday evening in a talk on "The History of Dentistry" presented to the local Rotary club at its regular meeting in the YWCA.

But teeth have caused difficulties for man since the dawn of history, and the more highly advanced his civilizations have become the more trouble he has had with his teeth, the dentist pointed out.

"The Egyptians who split a mouse and held it to their face for toothache did so because they thought the sun furnished healing power and that the mouse was closely related to the sun.

"Other magical charms were utilized. A wolf has strong teeth, so wolf's teeth tied around the neck were supposed to give the wearer strong teeth. Since worms were supposed to cause teeth decay the worm charm, 'Pear tree I complain to thee, the worms bother me, one is gray, the other blue, the third is red, I wish they were all three dead' was considered at one time a sure cure for toothache.

Cites Early 'Cures'

"The first mention of dentistry as a separate healing art was made by the Egyptian historian Herodotus in the fifth century before Christ. Oil of cloves and cinnamon and thymal were used about that time for the relief of pain, and are still used in present day practice.

"Hippocrates, the father of medicine, held that loose teeth should be extracted and thought those that were decayed but not loose should be cauterized with a red hot wire. Aristotle, in 300 BC wrote about the construction and use of dental forceps and was the first to write about the oral organs.

"Greatest dentists of the period before Christ were the Etruscans, examples of whose work in crowns and bridges made between 1000 and 400 BC. show them to be the equal of anything produced in Europe or the U. S. up to about 1870. The Romans, after conquering the Etruscans became so enamored of dental care they had slaves who did nothing but clean their teeth.

WILLIAM ROTH WINS EGG HUNT

A five-year-old boy, William Roth, Chambersburg street, won first prize Monday afternoon in the Easter egg hunt staged by the Epsilon Delta chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority on the high school playground for children up to eight years of age. The hunt had originally been scheduled for Saturday afternoon, but was postponed because of inclement weather.

Nearly 200 boys and girls assembled at 3 o'clock in front of the high school for the egg hunt, received instructions and started on their quests for the hidden eggs. The first prize, won by the Roth boy, was a large chocolate rabbit given by the sorority. The winner discovered 14 eggs.

Four children found 13 eggs, Patsy Kessel, East Middle street, 3 years old; David Stoner, York street, 6 years old; Jene Lupp, Baltimore street, 5 years old and Donald Gordon, Hagerstown, 8 years old.

Doris Kessling, Steinwehr avenue, 3 years old, and Betty Swope, Delap avenue, 5 years old, each found 12 eggs.

The committee in charge included Miss Louise Duncan, Mrs. Julius Swope and Mrs. J. Harold Miller. Prizes were donated by the Majestic grill, Gilbert's food market, Faber's, Sweetland, Romayne Miller and Culp's grocery.

Local Girl Scouts At Symphony Concert

Members of the Dehewanus Girl Scout troop left this afternoon at 2 o'clock by car for Harrisburg to attend a concert by the Harrisburg Symphony orchestra at 3:30 o'clock in the Forum. George K. Raudenbush will conduct the orchestra with Mildred Leschok, young Philadelphia pianist, appearing as soloist.

A new troop committee has been chosen by Mrs. Edward Beard, leader, which includes Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, Mrs. Kermit Deardorff, Mrs. Paul Mehring, Mrs. Clyde Berger and Mrs. Parker Wagnle.

FORMER EDITOR HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Ikeler and daughter, of Peekskill, N. Y., visited friends in Gettysburg over the Easter week-end en route home from Florida. Mr. Ikeler, president of the Peekskill Star, is a former editor of The Gettysburg Times.

Lions Club Now Has 100 Members

Membership in the Gettysburg Lions club reached 100 Monday evening, a new peak in the 24-year history of the local service club, with the induction of three members, Jacob G. Appler, Kenneth Thomas and Morris M. Steinhour.

Club officers said the membership rolls are expected to be increased again next Monday when a local man, already elected by the board, is expected to be on hand for initiation.

The trio Monday was formally received by President M. P. Hartzell, Sr., at the weekly dinner meeting at the Shetter House. The local club now is one of the largest in this part of the state.

CORPORATION PAPERS FILED FOR CHEST PLAN

Articles of incorporation for the Gettysburg Community Chest have been filed with the county prothonotary by the law firm of Swope, Brown and Swope.

Edward J. Daugherty, Baltimore street, who was stricken by a heart attack Saturday, was reported slightly improved today by his attending physician, Dr. Harrison Harbach.

Jurist Orders John L. Lewis Before Inquiry Board At 2 p.m.

Washington, March 30 (AP)—Justice Edward M. Curran ordered John L. Lewis to appear today before President Truman's board of inquiry in the coal strike at 2 p. m.

Curran acted quickly after Lewis' attorney raised the question of adequate time to reply to the summons and challenged the constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley act. The order was served on Lewis at UMW headquarters shortly after noon.

Lewis reached his office just before noon and deputy marshals arrived a bit later. One marshal remained in Lewis' office for about 20 minutes. He did not make any announcement when he left.

Charles Ward, chief deputy marshal, announced, however, that Lewis was "served personally" at 12:17 p. m.

Wesley K. Hopkins, attorney for the chief of the United Mine Workers, had argued barely 10 minutes when Curran ruled, Lewis did not appear personally to explain why he should not appear before the board of inquiry.

GUEST SPEAKER FOR LIONS; PUSH MINSTREL PLANS

Gettysburg Lions at their weekly dinner meeting at the Shetter House Monday evening heard a talk by Dr. Warren A. Gette of the Mont Alto state sanatorium staff and then turned to rehearsals for the minstrel show to be given Thursday and Friday evenings at the Gettysburg high school auditorium.

Fred G. Troxell, ticket sale chairman, announced that doors will open at the high school each evening at 7:15. Eight o'clock is show time. Proceeds from the affair will go into the club's charity fund.

Kenneth P. Hull, activities committee chairman, and Richard S. Codori, who is directing the chorus of dancing Lions, announced final dress rehearsal for the show Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the high school.

Letter From Gross

General admission and reserved seat tickets are on sale by the members of the club with the reserved seat charts placed at the Shetter House. Troxell's report showed about 750 tickets for the shows already sold.

It was revealed during the club session that the Lions board of directors had listed the club as a guarantor of the South Mountain fair.

A letter from Congressman Chester Gross assured the Lions of his "whole-hearted support" of the Gettysburg stamp resolution in the House. The congressman wrote that he is attempting to get the post-office and civil service committee to hold a hearing on it soon. Last week the club endorsed the memorial stamp proposal and asked Gross to (Continued on Page 7)

REPORTS SCOUT FUND CAMPAIGN WILL BE TOPPED

The 1948 Boy Scout drive will reach or surpass its goal, Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, Black Walnut district finance chairman, reported at a meeting of the district committee Monday night at Hotel Gettysburg. The prediction was based on returns from areas which have completed their canvass, and have reached or exceeded the quotas set for them. A scout training fund will be purchased out of any funds received above the goal, Mr. Teeter said.

Dr. W. E. Tilberg presided at the meeting. Charles I. Raffensperger, district organization chairman, reported on the results of a school survey, and announced that a three-night training course will be held shortly for parents of boys who signed their desire to join the Boy Scouts and Cub Packs.

Plan Club Packs

The survey indicated the possibility of setting up Cub Packs sponsored by the Presbyterian, Christ Lutheran, Methodist and St. James Lutheran churches, he said. Scouts who filled out cards for the survey will be invited to attend a Scout troop meeting, and to join. A close follow-up on 11-year-olds will be made to invite them to join when they reach their 12th birthdays.

TO RESUME CLASSES

The adult recreation classes will be resumed at the high school Thursday night, Paul Whitmoyer, recreation director, announced today, with the exception of the art and painting courses.

Hospital Auxiliary Will Seek Members

At the regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Warner hospital held Monday afternoon at the Nurses' home it was announced the annual membership drive will be conducted the week of April 12.

Membership will be open to anyone wishing to join.

Mrs. Roy W. Gifford, president, presided at the meeting. Refreshments were served by women of the Biglerville area.

NEW PARSONAGE TO BE DEDICATED AT LITTLESTOWN

The new parsonage of Redeemer's Reformed church, Littlestown, completed recently, on Maple avenue, will be dedicated on Monday evening, April 5, at an "open house" to which all members of the congregation are invited.

The church formerly owned a parsonage on East King street which was sold several years ago during the pastorate of the Rev. Theodore W. Boltz. The latter then resided in an apartment. When the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds became pastor two years ago a house next to the church at 10 East King street was rented and served as parsonage until the new home was completed.

A year ago a parsonage campaign was conducted when, in two weeks' time, over $9,000 was raised. Another campaign will be conducted between April 5 and April 17. On Sunday, April 18, the 88th anniversary of the church will be observed, when the amount raised in this year's drive will be announced.

The following were received into membership in Redeemer's church Easter Sunday: Wayne Arnold, Edwin Crouse, Richard B. Hartlaub, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers and Mrs. Richard W. Staley.

Holy Communion was administered. (Please Turn to Page 4)

L. S. Schlesinger Dies On Monday

Leonard S. Schlesinger, 41, New York city, died Monday morning at Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia, after an illness of several months. He was well known in Gettysburg a number of years ago when as district manager for the Warner Brothers theaters in this section he visited here frequently.

At the time of his death he was president of the Warner Brothers Service corporation, of New York. During the war he served with the Seabees, Sydney Poppa, manager of the local theaters, is among those from here planning to go to Philadelphia for the funeral Wednesday morning.

'REC' GROUP TO ARRANGE TOUR TO WASHINGTON

The Gettysburg Recreation Association today issued an invitation to local residents—particularly family groups—to join in an all-day visit Saturday to Washington.

With the cherry blossoms in full bloom, the association has chartered a bus with the hope that at least 28 persons will be interested in making a guided tour of Washington and Mt. Vernon starting at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and ending at 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

Reservations are to be $3.50 a person for the round trip. Babies in arms will ride free of charge. Those taking the trip should prepare a box lunch, which will be eaten picnic style somewhere along the 225-mile long tour. Later during the day a stop will be made at a restaurant for an evening meal.

The White House, capitol and cherry blossoms will be viewed during the course of the trip and stops will be made at Mt. Vernon, Washington monument, Lincoln monument and other points of interest. Those interested are asked to call Recreational Director Paul Whitmoyer at 211-W.

RED CROSS OVER HALF WAY MARK

The Adams County Red Cross fund campaign passed the one-half way mark today, with donations this morning bringing the total so far to $76,610.93. The chapter is seeking to raise $148,200 during its current drive.

District Five, East Berlin area, turned in $574.96; Gettysburg R. D. handed in $137.35 additional; District Two, Franklin township, added $40.35 to the sums already turned in by it and District One, Fairfield-Ortanna, added $5.

The East Berlin district total was divided as follows: from East Berlin, $297.25; Abbotstown, $101.50; Reading township, $112.08; Hamilton township, $333.50; Berwick township, $25.50 and Latimore township, $4.95.

FAVOR JOINING UPPER ADAMS' SCHOOL SYSTEM

Patrons of the Strausbaugh school in Buchanan Valley Monday evening voted, nearly unanimously, for Franklin township's school system to join the Upper Adams' jointure if it is possible to effect such a change.

The vote came at the end of a lengthy meeting attended by 150 patrons of the school to discuss with the Franklin township school board the possibility of joining with other school districts in accordance with recent legislation making enlargements of school attendance areas mandatory.

The meeting was the first of two to be held by the Franklin board to sound out opinion of the patrons on what steps the township should take (Please Turn to Page Two)

Here And There News Collected At Random

William L. Keefeaver, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefeaver, Springs avenue, a senior in electrical engineering at Penn State college, is listed in Volume 1, Number 2, of Penn State's Who's Who in the News. The bodies of four Adams county soldiers killed in action in the European theater of operations during World War II were to reach the United States aboard two U. S. Army transports, the Robert F. Burns, due in New York Monday, and the John L. McCarley, to arrive Wednesday. Both ships were scheduled to dock at New York city.

Aboard the Burns, according to an Army announcement, were the bodies of Sgt. Ralph E. Baker, Abbotstown R. 1; Pfc. Charles G. Hess, Gettysburg; and S/Sgt. Earl Swope, Jr., Gettysburg R. 2, while on the McCarley is the body of Pfc. David C. Mehring, Littlestown. The bodies of Baker, Hess and Swope were brought back from the U. S. Military cemetery at Henri Chapelle, Belgium, and that of Mehring from the "D-Day" Military cemetery, La-Cambe, France.

The Burns is bringing 2,723 bodies, 276 of them Pennsylvanians, from Antwerp, and the McCarley will arrive from Cherbourg with 2,619 bodies, of which 240 are Pennsylvanians.

Killed In Germany

Pfc. Hess, 21, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Selmar H. Hess, 233 Chambersburg street. He was killed in action in Germany December 17, 1944. Hess was a graduate of Gettysburg high school and was attending Gettysburg college when he enlisted in the army reserves in December, 1942. He was called to active duty in February, 1942, at Ft. Meade, and studied for nine months under the ASTP at the University of Arkansas before being transferred to the infantry and sent to Camp Maxey, Tex. He went overseas in October, 1944. His parents, two brothers, Selmar W. and Thomas Hess, and a sister, Jacqueline, survived.

Slain In Belgium

S/Sgt. Swope, 22, was the husband of Mrs. Pauline R. Swope and son of Mrs. Florence (Weigle) Schultz. He was killed in action in Belgium December 17, 1944. He entered service December 7, 1942, and trained at Camp Van Dorn, Miss. After maneuvers in Louisiana, he went to Camp Maxey, Tex., and was sent overseas in October, 1944, with the First Army. He was employed by the York Safe and Lock company before entering the service and at the Mechanicsburg Naval Depot. He left, besides his wife and mother, a brother, Charles Swope.

Sgt. Baker, 28, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Baker, Abbotstown R. 1, and husband of Mrs. Arlene Krumrine Baker, Westminster R. 2. He was killed in action in Germany December 12, 1944. Before entering the service he was employed by the Joe E. Banks construction company, York. He joined the infantry May 20, 1941, trained at Camp Croft, S. C., and Ft. Dix, N. J., and went overseas May 10, 1944, from Ft. Meade. Besides his parents and widow, he left nine brothers and sisters.

Pfc. Mehring, 22, was the son of Mrs. Claude Mehring, 147 Lombard street, Littlestown. He was killed in action in France June 17, 1944. Besides his mother, three brothers, Walter, William and Edgar, survived.

SHAFFER GIVEN JAIL SENTENCE

Eugene P. Shaffer, who last week gave a McSherrystown address and then listed 219 Carlisle street, Hanover, as his home, was given sentences totaling 14 months in the York county jail when he appeared before Judge Walter I. Anderson at York Monday.

Shaffer was arrested last week for larceny of an automobile and violation of parole. Upon pleading guilty, he received a sentence of 11 months for car theft, two months for violation of parole and an additional 30 days for operating a motor vehicle after his license had been revoked.

The defendant was charged with having stolen the automobile of Robert F. Kern, West Manchester township, near York. The car, with Shaffer seated in it, was found wrecked on the East Berlin-York road later.

Records introduced in court Monday showed Shaffer had been sentenced to 11 months for larceny of an automobile September 3, 1946. He was placed on parole May 2

PICKETS, POLICE IN BATTLE TODAY ON WALL STREET

New York, March 30 (AP)—Police and pickets battled toe to toe today on Wall Street, the heart of world finance, as violence flared in the New York stock and curb exchange strikes. The fighting ended after six minutes of fierce battling.

Men were knocked down. Women screamed. Police were thrown to the sidewalk.

Thirty-eight persons, including two women, were carted away to the old slip police station for booking on disorderly conduct charges and two of them were treated for injuries. Police said most of the men were of AFL Seamen's unions who had joined the AFL Financial employees on the picket line.

Detective Hospitalized

A detective's head was bleeding when he was picked up from the sidewalk in front of the stock exchange. He was sent to a hospital.

Riot squads of police, ambulances, mounted officers were rushed to the exchange. Private phones in adjoining stores and offices were allocated to police use only.

Wall street was roped off. Pickets lines were reduced in size. Employees of the exchange were conveyed inside in the building in groups of 50.

Mounted officers, responding to emergency calls, brought their horses in close formation at Broad and Wall streets in preparation for any further disturbance.

Trading Opens As Usual

Despite the trouble, trading opened promptly at 10 a.m. (Eastern Standard Time).

Brokers said operations were smoother than yesterday, the first day of the strike.

They said 85 per cent of the clearings were taken care of by seven o'clock last night and that things were normal today.

The telephone quotation service inside the exchange was not functioning, but exchange officials described the operation as a "luxury" and of no importance.

Police guards convoyed food into the stock exchange. Strikers walked along the picket line serving coffee.

Firemen Set Dates For Food Sale, Bazaar

The Gettysburg Fire company will hold its annual food sale and bazaar in the fire engine house June 24 and 25. Richard Elsenhart, chairman of the committee, announced today. The dates were selected by the committee at a meeting Monday night in the engine house.

Joseph E. Codori is treasurer and George D. March will be in charge of the books. George Burgner and John Fox will be in charge of the solicitation for prizes; Richard Cole and Raymond Menges in charge of country collections; Emory Strausbaugh will be in charge of the bingo games. Refreshments will be under the direction of C. David McCullough and Philip Jones. The entire committee will direct town collections.

Advance Plans For South Mountain Fair

Progress in plans for the South Mountain Fair were noted at a meeting of the fair association Monday evening at Arendtsville, with the group hoping to complete its organizational work by the next session, April 5.

By that date, M. E. Knouse, chairman of the executive committee pointed out, all department heads will have been named and it is hoped that the department chiefs will by that time have secured all members of their committees for the fair.

Sixth District To Hold Convention

An announcement was made today that the Sixth district Sunday school association will hold its annual convention at Trinity Bender's Reformed church, near Biglerville, on Sunday, April 11, at 7:30 p. m. President D. M. Hoffman will preside at the session. Details of the program will be announced later.

FILE RIGHTS OF WAY

Rights of way for the lines of the Metropolitan Edison company over the following properties have been filed with the county register and recorder: Roman Catholic congregation of Sacred Heart of Jesus church, Coneago township; John H. and Maud P. Nary, Franklin township; C. H. Musselman company, Tyrone township; Blaine O. Beamer, Latimore township.

BAILED FOR HEARING

Monroe Miller, 21, of Gettysburg R. 4, arrested by borough police Monday on a warrant for assault and battery sworn out by Levi Cook, Railroad street, furnished $300 bail before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder to appear for a hearing Wednesday night. Mr. Cook swore to the information on behalf of a minor son, 13 years old. Miller is accused of assaulting the boy Monday.

in accordance with the law. The second session will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the consolidated school near Cashtown.

May Meet April 7

Following that session the board plans to meet, probably April 7, to complete plans for carrying out as far as possible the desires of the patrons in connection with proposed changes.

Three possibilities lie ahead of the township in connection with joining with other districts, John W. Bream, a member of the township board, who presided at Monday's session said. The district can join with other districts to set up a jointure centering in the Fairfield area. It can seek to join with Gettysburg, or it can seek to join with the Upper Adams group, he said.

Under the law passed by the 1947 Legislature attendance areas should not be smaller than 180 students for elementary centers and not less than 800 for high school and elementary. Preferably elementary centers should have about 360 students and high school elementary centers should preferably have 1,600 students, Bream pointed out.

Discuss Fairfield Plan

Franklin township has 450 students, both high school and elementary and thus is too small to legally set up its own high school elementary area, he added.

The possibility of joining with Hamiltonban, Liberty, Fairfield, Highland and Freedom townships in a Fairfield area school set-up was discussed, with patrons pointing out that there are no school buildings in the proposed area large enough for centers, and that a new building or buildings would have to be constructed. In addition, patrons pointed out the natural trading area of the Buchanan Valley group is in Arendtsville and Biglerville.

Gettysburg was discussed as a possibility but it was pointed out that the Gettysburg schools are overcrowded, according to reports from superintendent Dr. L. C. Keefeauver, so at present Gettysburg could not accept the students unless it builds a junior high school in the early future.

Upper Adams Agreeable

The Upper Adams jointure has building plans underway and will be able to accept additional pupils next fall, Bream said he had learned.

Students from Franklin township now in Gettysburg high school will continue their education there unless the parents prefer to have them moved to some other high school, such as Biglerville, if a jointure with the Upper Adams group can be effected, he added.

Asserting that the board wants to do only that which the parents want, Bream added that if parents wish to send students of ninth grade level or over to Gettysburg high school at any future date the board will yield to their wishes.

Seek Patrons' Wishes

The board, Bream pointed out, "is not going to act as a dictator in this matter. We want to know what you want to do and we want, as far as possible, to follow your wishes. There is nothing hard and fast in any suggestion that is made. In the first place we have to apply to other boards to effect a jointure with any other system. And we may be turned down, although private inquiries indicate that we probably will be accepted by the Upper Adams group if we apply. What we need now is an indication of what you are thinking so we can be guided in working out the best possible plan for all concerned."

County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh reported on Legislative Act 361 which authorizes the enlarged attendance areas.

Clyde A. McCauslin, principal of the consolidated school, presented figures which showed that a jointure with upper Adams would cost the township no more than the approximately $4,000 additional that will be needed next year, whether the township joins another system or not, to meet state established pay raises for teachers. Patrons voted for jointure with Upper Adams.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license was issued at the court house today to Leon Henry Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. George N. Little, Hanover R. 4, and Agnes Mary Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Moore, Gettysburg R. 5.

Catholic War Vets Picket Another Ship
Jersey City, N. J., March 30 (AP)—The Catholic War Veterans began picketing a second Russian freighter, the Volga, today—their lines set up a half mile from the pier where the vessel is docked.
The picket line was posted outside the Claremont terminal of the Lehigh Valley railroad.
Thomas J. Carlin, Hudson county commander of the CWV, first to appear to picket, said he would not withdraw his pickets this time in "a fight to the finish against shipment of war potential" goods to the Soviet Union.
The CWV drew nationwide attention to the Soviet-bound shipment of mechanized equipment by picketing a Russian freighter, the Cukotka, last week.

MORE NAVY TESTS
Washington, March 30 (AP)—The Navy is going to test the hulls of three ships with underwater explosions. Conventional non-atomic explosives will be used. The tests will begin next month in Chesapeake Bay. A series of explosions will be fired near the ships over five-day periods about a month apart during April, May and June.

HOSPITAL REPORT
Mrs. Floyd Deardorff, Gardners; Jacob Byers, Jr., Gettysburg R. 5, and Mrs. Oliver Dutters, Westminster R. 1, have been admitted to the Warner hospital. Those discharged include Lawrence Weimer, Gettysburg R. 1 and Mrs. George Baumgardner and infant son, Thomas Delmar, Taneytown, Md.

KENTUCKY AND OILERS SNARE CAGE TRIUMPHS

New York, March 30 (AP)—The Phillips Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., and the Wildcats of the University of Kentucky will furnish 10 of the 14 players on the basketball squad which goes to London this summer to represent the United States in the Olympic games.

In addition, the national AAU and NCAA titleholders, who shot their way to the finals of the U. S. Olympic tryouts at Madison Square Garden last night will meet in an exhibition series later this year to help pay expenses of the trip to the British capital.

Bartlesville flattened the Denver Nuggets, 69-40, while Kentucky whipped Baylor university, 77-59, in the semi-finals. Both victories followed the pattern set by the same teams in the recent finals of the national AAU and NCAA tournaments.

America's Olympic cage squad will not be selected officially until tomorrow night after Bartlesville and Kentucky clash in the finals of the tryouts and Denver and Baylor meet for third place.

The U. S. Olympic basketball committee has invited the Bartlesville and Kentucky coaches to recommend five men each for the American squad, however, and Adolph Rupp, Wildcat Mentor, said last night he would submit the names of his regular starters.

On the other hand, coach Bud Browning of the AAU champions wants no part of such a responsibility.

"I don't plan to make any recommendations to the committee," Browning said. "I have too many good boys on my squad to pick out the five who should make the trip. I'll let the committee select them."

The other four players on the Olympic squad will be named by the committee from among the remaining six teams in the playoffs.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 30 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers' Dizzy Trout and Art Houtteman were the first major league pitchers to go nine innings during the current spring training season. . . . That comparatively unimportant fact emphasizes a phenomenon that likely will continue through the entire American league campaign. . . . Detroit hasn't a first-division ball club, in the commonly accepted sense, but it will be a pennant contender because of its superb pitching staff. . . . As Billy Evans explains: "We'll only need a couple of runs to win a game with the kind of pitching we'll get." . . . University of Pennsylvania baseball fans claim their shortstop, Bobby Baumer, looks like Slaty Marion in the field. . . . After a couple of boots they'll add the resemblance began just when Marion's knee gave way.

TANK JOB

Bob Seymour became swimming coach at the University of Denver last December because he was a football backfield coach with little to do all winter. . . . Bob, who claims he took a few lessons at the "Y" so he wouldn't drown before issuing the call for candidates, found himself in charge of a team that won six of seven dual meets, won the Skyline Six championship then took almost every event in the Rocky Mountain A.A.U. meet. . . . Following custom, the Athletics have pitched Bob into the tank eight times, to which his only comment is: "It's hard on store-bought clothes, but I'm proud to cooperate."

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES

Pete Cawthon, who has been talent scout for the Detroit Lions for the past few seasons, has just returned from Texas with 20 cow horses for his boys camp in Virginia. . . . If they could lug a football Pete probably would sell them to some club. . . . Gilles Stedman, former superintendent of the Kings Point Merchant Marine academy, recently was appointed head of Japan's Amateur Baseball Federation by General MacArthur. . . . Colossal, South American speedster owned by racing's big bargain-hunter, Fred Hooper, has been entered in Keeneland's Ben Ali handicap. One of his rivals likely will be a real bargain horse, South Dakota, known in Lexington as the "poor man's Whirlaway."

WOMEN TO BOWL

Philadelphia, March 30 (AP)—Ninety-four teams from 20 cities will invade Philadelphia next week-end to compete in the 10th annual Pennsylvania State Women's Bowling Championships at the Dykes Colonial alleys. Fifteen of the teams are from Wilkes-Barre, 11 each from York and Harrisburg, nine from Erie, seven each from Chester and Allentown, six each from Bethlehem, Warren and Lancaster.

GET TWO TIGERS

Lakeland, Fla., March 30 (AP)—The Williamsport baseball club of the Eastern league landed two Detroit Tiger players yesterday. The Tigers cut loose five players including Patcher Lou Kretlow and Shortstop Harold Daugherty, who were sent to Williamsport.

Warriors, Bombers Meet Again Tonight

(By The Associated Press)
The Philadelphia Warriors, defending champions of the basketball Association of America, have the familiarity of their home floor as an advantage tonight when they attempt to lengthen their lead over St. Louis in the playoff series between divisional leaders.

The Warriors, Eastern Division leaders, have a 2-to-1 game lead over the St. Louis Bombers, best of the west, in the four-out-of-seven game series.

The two series involving the second and third place clubs of the two division will be resumed later in the week.

New York and Baltimore, the No. 2 finishers, are tied at 1-1 in the best-of-three competition and the decisive contest will be played Thursday at Baltimore.

HAYES MAY BE RACING CZAR

Chicago, March 30 (AP)—Midget auto racing's first commissioner may be Gen. Phillip Hayes of Baltimore, Md.

The retired World War II general, former commander of the Third Service Command, was offered the position of czar of the new National Automobile Racing League yesterday.

Irving Fried of Philadelphia, who was elected president of the newly-formed organization, said a five-year contract had been offered to Hayes. The pact was reported to call for a yearly salary of $15,000.

"We have every reason to believe Hayes will accept," said Fried.

Hayes, one time athletic director at West Point, would supervise 55 of an estimated 90 midget tracks in the nation. Under the league's jurisdiction he would have dictatorial control of racing and sit as a court of last resort to rule on grievances.

National organization of midget racing was completed yesterday by representatives of 10 driver association groups. The new league was created less than a week after the Automobile Association of America stepped into the small car field by sanctioning some 21 tracks.

CAGE FINALISTS EMERGE TONIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
Three finalists for the PIAA Class A and B basketball playoffs will emerge from games tonight.

The eastern hopeful will be decided in a game between Norristown High and York high at the University of Pennsylvania's Palestra.

In Pittsburgh, Ford City will take on Westinghouse to determine which five will meet the winner of the Norristown-York contest in the final Class A event.

One Class B finalist was nominated last night. That team is Bridgeport high school which defeated Swoyville high, 40 to 38, in a semi-final playoff at Wayne.

Bridgeport's opponent in the Class B finals will be the winner of tonight's game between Kane and Irwin at Farrell.

The Bridgeport victory came on a last minute field goal by Tom Nowicki.

The loss was the second for Swoyville in 27 contests this season. Bridgeport trailed at halftime 21-13 and 31-29 at the end of the third period.

Training Camp Briefs

Clearwater, Fla., March 30 (AP)—Centerfielder Harry (The Hat) Walker, the National league's batting champion last year, still has his eye on the ball.

Walker tagged the Detroit Tigers' Art Houtteman for a double and triple yesterday but the Philadelphia Phillies mates lost the game, 7 to 4.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 30 (AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics would have a good start toward the American league pennant if grapefruit league competition counted as the real thing.

The A's won their sixth straight exhibition contest yesterday, beating Toronto of the International league, 5-4. Hurler Carl Schieb helped his own cause by singling Eddie Joost home in the sixth inning.

El Centro, Calif., March 30 (AP)—Larry Jansen, starting his second season with the New York Giants, is showing that his initial season was no flash in the pan.

The talented right-hander, who won 21 games and lost 5 last year, has allowed only one run in 12 innings so far. He pitched six scoreless frames against the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday as the Giants blanked the Bucs, 2-0.

TO BROADCAST GAME

The York high-Norristown high basketball game at the Palestra in Philadelphia this evening at 8 o'clock for the eastern championship in the PIAA playoffs will be broadcast over WORK, York.

Edward Stewart, Yankees outfielder, is out at second as Jack Phillips, Yank infielder, hits into a double play in the 8th inning of the game with the Boston Red Sox at St. Petersburg, Fla. Bill Goodman (right) Bo-sox second baseman, fielded the ball and threw to Vernon Stephens (center) to catch Phillips. Stephens whips the ball to first baseman Murrell Jones to complete the double killing. The teams set an American League record for citrus circuit exhibition by playing four hours and two minutes to a 17-inning, 2-2 tie. (AP wirephoto)

Los Angeles, March 30 (AP)—The Pacific Coast league opens its 46th season of baseball today with Seattle at Hollywood, Los Angeles at San Diego, San Francisco, at Sacramento and Portland at Oakland.

President Clarence Rowland predicted a banner season that he said would top even 1947, when 4,600,000 spectators established an all-time minor league attendance record.

New Haven, Conn., March 30 (AP)—The University of Michigan comes to the National AAU swimming tournament here this weekend with the Big Nine and National Collegiate titles safely tucked away, but the competition in the Yale pool will be different.

In addition to the collegians against whom Michigan has been swimming all season, the AAU meet is open to aquatic stars who have left college but retain their swimming skill and to prep school standouts whose college days are ahead of them. Since this is an Olympic year, the cream of the crop is expected to be on hand.

South Orange, N.J., March 30 (AP)—Seton Hall track coach John Gibson said today he was awaiting approval of school authorities to participate in the Drake Relays in Des Moines, Ia., on April 24.

This was the latest development in a lingering dispute that arose between Seton Hall and the University of Pennsylvania, sponsor of the Penn Relays, scheduled for April 23 and 24, last year.

At that time Seton Hall objected to its teams being placed in the "A" category, contending that they were not strong enough for that classification. Seton Hall asked a "B" rating and when it was refused, Gibson withdrew his squad.

COURT RULES FOR REPORTERS

Newburgh, N. Y., March 30 (AP)—The state Supreme Court has ruled illegal jail sentences and fines imposed on two newspapermen who refused to disclose sources of information.

The final court order, disclosed yesterday, directed the refunding of $100 fines to Douglas V. Clarke, 33, news editor of the Newburgh News, and Charles L. Leonard, 27, reporter for the paper.

Clarke and Leonard were fined and sentenced to 10 days in jail February 27 on contempt of court charges. They refused to tell an Orange county grand jury where they obtained lottery tickets reproduced in the News.

The men were freed in custody of their attorney on March 4 by Justice Frank H. Coyne who said a final decision on writs of habeas corpus would be made later.

In his final order he said the procedure under which the newspapermen had been indicted, tried and sentenced was defective. Defense attorneys maintained the two were not given a chance to prepare their defense before being sentenced.

AUSTIN TO ASK UN FOR TRUCE

By LARRY HAUCK

Lake Success, March 30 (AP)—Warren R. Austin is set to ask the United Nations today to order a truce in Palestine.

The chief United States delegate also has a resolution in his pocket calling for a special session of the U. N. Assembly on the Palestine problem. His aides said both proposals are ready for presentation to the Security Council this afternoon (2:30 p.m. EST).

The truce and special session proposals represent only a portion of revised American plans for the Holy Land. Other parts call for an interim U. N. trusteeship in the Holy Land in lieu of partition and instructions to the Palestine partition commission to cease work.

There is little optimism here for the new truce proposal. Three such moves already have failed.

The Arabs hold there can be no laydown of arms unless partition is dropped; the Jews say there can be no truce unless partition is effected.

The partition commission decided last night to go ahead with creation of a provisional Jewish government in Palestine. The five-nation com-

STUDYING COURT RULE ON BOOKS

Philadelphia, March 30 (AP)—Philadelphia authorities today are studying the possible effect of a U. S. Supreme court decision on recent police seizures of novels as "Salacious Books."

The court declared unconstitutional a 64-year-old New York law against stories of bloodshed, lust and crime. Justice Felix Frankfurter, in a dissenting opinion, said the ruling would invalidate similar laws in Pennsylvania and 19 other states.

Meanwhile, Attorney R. Sturgis Ingersoll petitioned U. S. District Court in Philadelphia for an injunction against police confiscation of the best-seller "Rainbow Country" by the late Ross Lockridge, Jr.

Ingersoll, acting for Houghton-Mifflin company, of Boston, publisher of the book, argued that the Lockridge novel is "primarily a clean book" and that its confiscation was unconstitutional.

Inspector Craig Ellis and other members of the Philadelphia vice squad in two recent raids on central city book shops seized more than 2,000 novels, including the works of James T. Farrell. The seizures have been protested by Farrell himself and a number of booksellers and individuals.

James F. Ryan, assistant city solicitor of Philadelphia, said he did not think the Supreme Court justices "could possibly have covered obscenity under their reference to freedom of the press" in their majority ruling on the New York law.

New York Liberals Want To Draft Ike

New York, March 30 (AP)—A call for a draft of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as Democratic candidate for President has been issued by the policy committee of New York state's Liberal party.

"In this deepening crisis," the committee said in a resolution last night, "we believe that our country needs at its head a man who can unify all of our people in the preservation of democratic values."

"We have come to the conclusion that Dwight Eisenhower as a candidate of the Democratic and Liberal forces could unite the greatest number of Americans at this time."

The Eisenhower call will go before the party's state committee on April 17.

The Liberal party, which exists only in this state and is a right-wing offshoot of the American Labor party, polled 329,235 votes for the Roosevelt-Truman ticket in 1944.

The Liberal party usually has supported Democratic nominees.

Southern Peaches Damaged By Frost

Atlanta, Ga., March 30 (AP)—Southern peach crop prospects shriveled today.

An Easter Monday frost settled on the pink blossoms and buds all the way from the North Carolina sandhills down through Piedmont South Carolina to mid-Georgia.

Growers estimated the damage from 10 to 95 per cent. Some thought the loss, running into thousands of carloads, might cut the prospective yield in half. This consolation remained however: what peaches do get through will be bigger and fancier because of the thinning accomplished by the freeze. A small crop also will cause higher prices.

Princess Elizabeth Is A Navy "Widow"

London, March 30 (AP)—Princess Elizabeth is a navy "widow" now.

Her husband, Prince Philip, began a six-months' course at the Royal Naval Staff college at Greenwich today. Like any other student, he must live there without his wife. They were married November 20.

Greenwich is five miles from Kensington palace in London where the Princess is in residence. The couple will have week-end and occasional evenings together.

TALK AGAIN OF RATIONING AND PRICE CONTROLS

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington, March 30 (AP)—OPA's restless ghost came back to the halls of Congress today as senators linked inflation dangers to plans for big military spending.

Talk of the possibility of reviving wage-price controls, rationing and other curbs on the domestic economy was touched off by Bernard M. Baruch.

The 77-year-old adviser to presidents shook the gathering dust from the issue by declaring that the cost of America's stop-Russia drive will have a "tremendous impact" on prices and living conditions at home.

The talk got another push from Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric company and former vice chairman of the War Production Board.

Wilson said the cost of rearmament, a temporary draft and universal military training could pinch to a point where wartime controls would be necessary whether there is shooting or not.

Wilson and Baruch expressed their views yesterday to the Senate Armed Services committee, which is nearing a decision on UMT and the draft revival asked by President Truman.

The Gettysburg troop of the Pennsylvania National Guard will observe Army Day on April 6 with "open house" and a dance at the local armory. Everything is free and the public should respond by attending this function. . . .

In observance of Army Day Major General Luther D. Miller, chief of chaplains of the U. S. Army, who delivered the baccalaureate address at the college commencement here last May, has written the following prayer for the occasion:

"O eternal Lord God, be pleased to receive into Thine almighty and most gracious protection the soldiers of our country. Support them in the day of battle, and in their service to our country amidst the storms and floods of national disasters. Shield them from all danger; keep them strong and steadfast; give them courage and chivalry; uphold their hands as they seek to further the cause of righteousness for the maintenance of a just peace. Hold in Thine omnipotent keeping our many comrades who, having made the great sacrifice upon the altar of liberty, now rest with Thee. Grant that we, the living, may keep faith with these brave ones who have gone before us, to the end that we may glorify Thy Holy Name and be worthy trustees of the moral heritage of our beloved country. Bless our comrades, we pray thee, O God, wherever they serve; and keep this our land, the United States of America, under Thy holy protection. Amen."

All persons who served honorably in the armed forces of the United States during the period September 16, 1940 proclamation of the unlimited emergency) and December 31, 1946 (date of termination of hostilities in World War II), are entitled to a Testimonial by the President of the United States. It was announced today by Colonel James B. Carroll, executive, Eastern Pennsylvania Military district. "Commanding officers of all installations will issue the Testimonial to any individual who served for any period between September 16, 1940 and December 31, 1946, and was honorably separated without receiving the Testimonial upon presentation, either in person or by mail, of a certificate of service, certificate of discharge, or notice of separation," he stated.

LEARNS TO TALK FROM STOMACH

State College, Pa., March 30 (AP)—Mrs. Juanita Spence, 36, who lost her voice in 1943, and her husband, Kenneth, who is hard of hearing, are looking forward today to the time when they can carry on a normal husband-and-wife conversation.

After losing her voice, Mrs. Spence underwent an operation in which her larynx was removed in 1944. She was forced to write all her conversation with her husband, a welder.

Last summer, Mrs. Spence answered the front doorbell. The caller, asking for directions, saw that Mrs. Spence was forced to write her answer and explained he was a representative of the Station Vocational Rehabilitation program.

He arranged for Mrs. Spence to enroll in the Speech and Hearing clinic at Pennsylvania State college. She began her training last Jan. 15, learning to swallow air and form the resulting "burps" into speech sounds.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Local Miscellany: The McSherrys-town Fire Company will parade in this place on Easter Monday. In the evening a ball will be given in the engine house.

The Ramer Brothers, Bakers, have rented the store room of Miss Mary McAllister, on Chambersburg street, where they will have headquarters for their bakery.

J. T. Henry, huckster, gathered and shipped from Cashtown last week 3,100 dozen eggs to the Hanover Produce Company.

Alexander Black's picture play, "A Capital Courtship," in Bruns Chapel, on Wednesday evening, was a very interesting entertainment and appreciated by a large and attentive audience.

A large and appreciative audience attended the literary exercises of the High School, which were held last Friday afternoon in the assembly room. The program, entitled "The Land of Scott and Burns," which was a study of Scottish poetry and song, was excellently rendered by all participating.

Marriages: Anthony - Trostle. — March 24, by Rev. J. A. Har-lacher, David W. Anthony, of Frankintown, York county, to Miss Sallie Trostle, of Bermudian.

Wolf-Tate. — March 27, at Arendtsville, by Rev. M. M. Noacher, Amos Wolf to Miss Nannie Tate, both of Mummaburg.

Bair-Hostetter. — March 22, at the bride's home, by Rev. Reuben Bair, Daniel S. Bair, of Hellam, York county, to Mrs. Annie M. Hostetter, of Union township.

Smith-Albert. — March 24, at Lancaster, by Rev. D. W. Gerhard, Charles E. Smith, of Clear Springs, to Miss Minnie J. Albert, of New Oxford.

Wedding Bells: On Tuesday, Miss Julia S. Schriver, eldest daughter of J. Edward Schriver, of Cumberland township, and Mr. John H. Eckert, of Straban township, were united in matrimony by Rev. T. J. Barkley, pastor of the Reformed church. The bridesmaids were Miss Edna Schriver and Miss Edna Bender. A reception and wedding dinner followed.

Pigeon Shoot: A live bird shoot was held at Biglerville this afternoon by a few wing shots of the county. The shooting was not up to the average, owing to a strong wind, and the birds being swift flyers. Following is the score. Three events, 10 birds each:

J. Harry Slaybaugh	9	6	6
J. Ed. McCammon	3	5	6
Elias Fissel	6	5	7
Harry Robinson	7	7	5
Harry J. Lerew	8	6	7
Louis Kane	4	7	5

The birds were retrieved beautifully by Powers Pittenburgh's dog.

Today's Talk

THESE TALKS

For 30 years these daily Talks have been going out to newspapers all over the United States and Canada. It is the happiest thing that I have ever done, and the one thing that has brought to me the greatest joy, for I contact millions of readers each day of my life.

My father was a minister, and an inspiring one. He left me a long time ago, as did my mother, and my twin sister, who was a missionary in China for 30 years. The latter left me two years ago, but I like to think that I am carrying on for them through these simple expressions. I like to think of myself as an everyday messenger of helpful ideas and suggestions — just among friends. Through these Talks I have contracted a multitude of friends who have, in turn, enriched my life beyond all calculation.

These Talks are mostly written in my library, with books strewn all about, as silent friends, inspiring me. I started writing them to encourage myself — then the idea worked so well that I started distributing them. Something like 12,000 of these Talks have been printed and sent out. I like to think that some of them have not been written in vain. I like to think of my work as a Lamp Lighter, like the man I used to follow in the small town as he went his rounds with me at his heels, in my youth.

I like to mention worthwhile books in this brief space, and let others in on my enjoyment and inspiration. A toll-bridge keeper, near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, once wrote me that these Talks had led him to books and that he had since gotten together a library of 300 books — and read them all. What a thrill that news gave me! And I like to talk about people, and the simple things that are so fundamental to the happiness of us all.

You, who read these Talks from time to time, note that I quote a great deal from great minds. I cannot resist telling other people about what thrills me. So I hope that I am excited. The writers of the kindly letters I receive are each one thanked from my heart as each letter is read. To each one I can say a God bless you!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Curiosity."

LINES TO BINGO-PLAYING LADY

Lady, tell me looking on,
Though it's ill for me to speak so;
How could number twenty-one
Make so fair a person shrink so?

You were beautiful to see;
One to set a poet dreaming.
What in bingo can there be
So to start such fearful screaming?

Never from so fair a face
Did I think could come such "hollers."

Lady, you disturbed the place
Just for six or seven dollars.

If at bingo you must play,
Lady, heed this song I strum you;
Win or lose, still modest stay.
Shrieks like that do not become you.

WALLACE BACK AFTER BLAST BY PRESIDENT

By JACK BELL

Washington, March 30 (P)—Henry A. Wallace came back to the capital today, hard on the heels of President Truman's thinly veiled suggestion that he take his whole third party movement to Russia.

At the same time anti-Truman Democrats refused to accept as final an official army declaration that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is no more available to them than to the Republicans.

And on the other side of the political fence, reports bobbed up that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Senator Robert A. Taft have agreed to gang up against Harold E. Stassen's bid for Maine's 13 GOP convention votes.

Speaks To Greeks

These were the developments, one at a time:

Mr. Truman, who less than two weeks ago denounced "Henry Wallace and his Communists," in a St. Patrick's Day speech, took another poke at his ousted cabinet officer and Presidential rival. The setting this time was a dinner meeting of Greek-Americans, the Order of Ahepa.

The President was introduced by Dean Alfange of New York who told the audience that Wallace and his followers ought to go to the Rocky mountains "in the role of Greek guerrillas."

Then, Alfange continued, Premier Stalin might recognize the former Vice President as "the leader of the free government of the United States."

"The Dean has stolen my thunder," Mr. Truman said in his extemporaneous remarks. "I was going to tell you that the Greeks had a Henry Wallace. I was going to tell you that the Greeks had a statesman, an orator, a demagogue, x x x They had the greatest demagogue of all times, Alcibiades."

To See Committee

But, the Chief Executive continued, "if imitators of that ancient Greek conqueror want to see x x x liberties subverted, I suggest that they go not to the Rocky mountains — that's fine country out there. He ought to go to the country he loves so well and help them against his own country if that's the way he feels."

There was no immediate rejoinder from Wallace. He was booked for an afternoon appearance before the Senate armed services committee to oppose Mr. Truman's request for a temporary draft revival and Universal Military Training.

As for Eisenhower and the boom among some southern and northern Democrats to promote him as a substitute candidate for Mr. Truman, the army's top press relations officer, Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, said all this maneuvering had had no effect upon the retired chief of staff.

Won't Give Up "Ike"
Permitting his name to be used rather than insisting upon anonymity as an "Eisenhower spokesman," Parks declared in a statement that "under no conceivable circumstances" will the five-star general yield to a Democratic draft.

"The General means his no-politics announcement of some weeks ago to apply to all parties and groups of voters," Parks added.

Democratic supporters of the General found slight comfort, however, in two factors. One was that Eisenhower himself did not issue the statement. The other was that while Parks said Eisenhower "has not changed one iota in his position," the General's spokesman added: "I do not believe he will do so."

As a matter of fact, Daniel James, secretary of the "Draft Eisenhower Movement" said in New York that Parks' statement cannot stop a "people's draft." James added that Eisenhower can "speak for himself, and will at the proper time."

Two Shots Fired At US Consul In Ontario
Windsor, Ont., March 30 (P)—Ontario provincial police sought clues today to the stealthy assailant who fired two gunshots Sunday night at John Bankhead, American consul here.

Bankhead said the shots, apparently fired from behind a tree, struck the rear door of his car as he drove up to his Riverside Drive home. He was alone in the car.

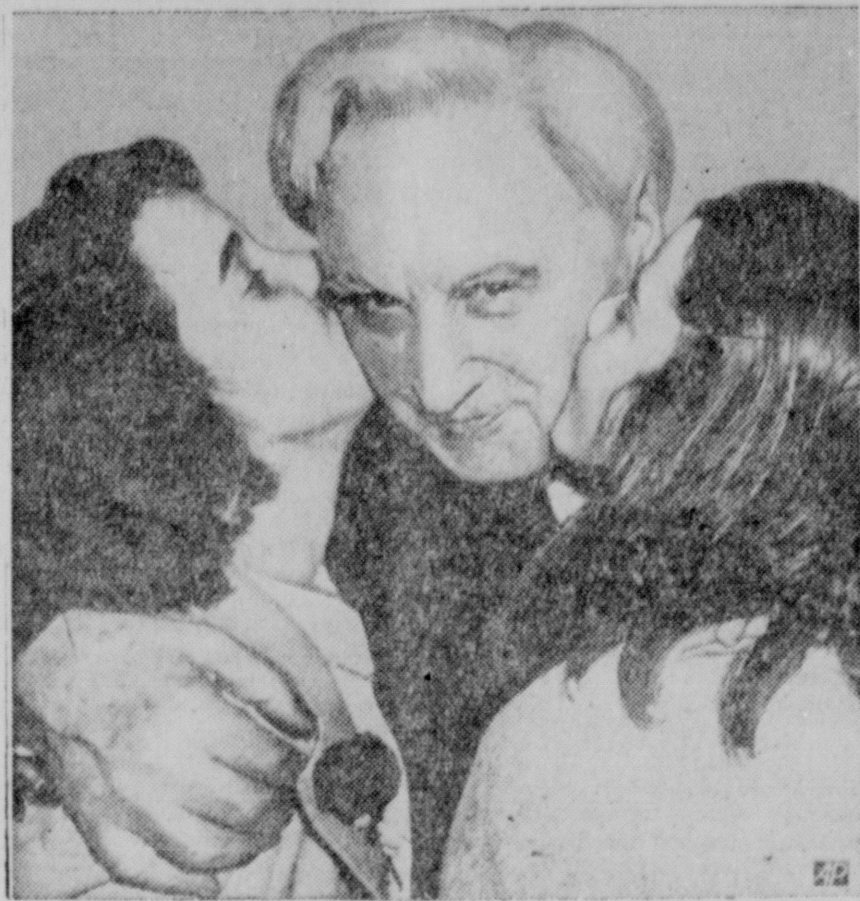

Police found footprints between a post and tree at the driveway entrance.

It was the third attempt on his life in recent weeks, Bankhead said. He reported that poisoned liquor and candy had been sent to his home. On another occasion his car had been tampered with, he said.

The American consul has come to attention for his tight border restriction policy. He has attributed this to an effort to keep Communists from entering the United States by way of Detroit.

RAILROADER CRUSHED

Bethlehem, Pa., March 30 (P)—John Kistulenz, 37-year-old brakeman, was crushed to death between two dump cars of a narrow gauge railroad at the Saucon plant of the Bethlehem Steel Corp. Kistulenz, who was working near an open hearth at the time of the accident yesterday, was married and the father of two small children.

COP NABS PAIR NEW PARSONAGE ROBBING LODGE

Connellsville, Pa., March 30 (P)—

One man was shot and another jailed today in what Patrolman Francis Bambray described as a shooting affray following the attempted robbery of the Moose club in nearby Scottsdale.

Burruss A. A. Reynolds of Scottsdale said the wounded man was Louis Gross, about 30, father of seven. Reynolds identified the man held on an open charge as Harold Leasure, 31. Both men are from Scottsdale.

Reynolds and Bambray told this story:

Bambray saw an open window at the rear of the Moose club. He arrested Gross, whom he saw entering, and started for the borough building. Gross struck Bambray and fled. Bambray called to Gross to halt, he fired three shots in the air and finally a fourth which struck the fleeing man in the back. After summoning aid for the victim the policeman entered the Moose club and found Leasure. Leasure was taken to jail without incident.

Attaches at the Connellsville state hospital said Gross' condition was critical.

Weather Forecast

Extended weather forecast for period March 31 to April 4:
For Middle Atlantic states and eastern New York—

Temperature will average about two degrees below normal mild in south portion and moderate temperature in north portion on Wednesday becoming somewhat colder Thursday and Friday. Milder over the week-end, with showers in south and central portion and rain possibly mixed with snow in north portion late Wednesday. Showers again about Saturday. Total precipitation about one-half inch in south portion and one-quarter inch in middle portion.

For western Pennsylvania, Ohio, and West Virginia—

Temperature will average about two degrees below normal, with mild weather Wednesday becoming cooler Thursday and Friday and milder over the week-end. Showers Wednesday and again about Saturday. Total precipitation about one-half inch.

Railroad Brakeman Is Fatally Injured

Harrisburg, March 30 (P)—A Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman was killed today in striking his head on an overhead bridge while riding on the locomotive tender of a freight train.

Dr. Edward A. Haegel, Cumberland county coroner, reported the brakeman, Charles A. Bonnell, 47, Tyrone, R. D. 2, was knocked unconscious by the blow and fell into the coal aboard the tender.

The coroner said the man apparently was suffocated from blood running over his face as it was buried in the coal.

Check Sons Of Slain Woman

Pittsburgh, March 30 (P)—Allegheny county Detective Chief C. J. Johnston said he planned paraffin tests for three sons of a dead woman to determine if her death was suicide or murder.

The victim, Mrs. Catherine Sulenski, was found shot to death in the bedroom of her home yesterday, a discharged 38 caliber revolver on the bed beside her.

Johnston said the sons, Joseph, Chester, and Walter admitted to detectives that they had been drinking over the Easter week-end. Walter, 26, told police their mother had remonstrated with them.

Washington (P)—Expenditures of states in the United States for education varied from a high of 33.6 per cent of all state expenditures in Delaware to a low of 3 per cent in Iowa in 1946.

FLAMES CHASE 50 FAMILIES EARLY TODAY

Philadelphia, March 30 (P)—Fire destroyed two buildings in the Germantown section of the city early today and forced fifty families to flee from nearby homes.

Firemen, hampered by dense smoke, succeeded in confining the blaze to a four story structure at 26-30 W. Rittenhouse street and a three story building at 32 W. Rittenhouse street within 40 minutes after it was discovered by a passerby about 12:30 a. m. (EST).

However, firemen continued to battle the blaze for nearly two hours before it was declared under control.

There was no immediate estimate of the damage and firemen said several persons in the building at the time fled when the fire was discovered.

The four story building houses the offices of the furniture refinishing firm of W. S. Eggert, Sr. Toll and Toll, venetian blind makers; Forbes Bros. lamp manufacturers; Myers' Ribbon Craft Co. and the Krafts Mfg. Co., seat cover manufacturers.

The blaze, fed by lacquers, paints and textiles, spread to the adjoining three story structure which houses the offices of Bruckner's syrups and for a time threatened to span a 50-foot airway to the Germantown YWCA in the rear.

One of the best ways to use left-over pieces of roast meat is to grind it for hash or a meat pie. The pie may have either a baking powder biscuit, pastry or mashed potato crust.

Tribune Winner Of Typography Award

Philadelphia, March 30 (P)—The F. Wayland Ayer cup, top honor in the 18th annual exhibition of newspaper typography conducted by N. W. Ayer and Son, was awarded yesterday to the New York Herald Tribune.

Excellence of presswork, makeup and typography determined the selection, the advertising firm said yesterday. The Herald Tribune was chosen from among more than 1,000 entries.

The Herald Tribune also was chosen best in its circulation classification—standard-size newspapers of more than 50,000 daily circulation. The Daily Oklahoman of Oklahoma City, Okla., was selected second in this group and the Christian Science Monitor third.

Hosiery Firm Fined In Federal Court

Philadelphia, March 30 (P)—A fine of $1,522 has been levied against the Regal Hosiery Co. of Reading and $23 against President Donald L. Little for violations of the Federal wage-hour law.

The company and its head pleaded not guilty (no contest) before Federal Judge James P. McGranery yesterday. They were charged with failing to pay nine employees overtime wages due them and 14 other violations of the wage-hour law. The company was fined $1,500 on one count and $100 each on the other 22. Miller was fined at the rate of $1.00 for each count.

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From

✓ STOMACH GAS
✓ SOUR FOOD TASTE
✓ ACID INDIGESTION
Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress.

Everytime food enters the stomach a gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of Bogota, Colombia, March 30 (AP)—Top diplomats of 21 Pan American nations convene here today for what may prove to be the most important conference in the history of the western hemisphere.

President Mariano Ospina Perez of Colombia will open the ninth international conference of American states with a welcoming address this afternoon.

Three basic projects face the delegates:

1. Moulding of the inter-American system into a strong regional bloc within the framework of the United Nations.

2. Creation of a program of economic aid for Latin America.

3. Enactment of a pact providing for a peaceful solution of differences between the American Republics.

Communism To Come Up

Not on the agenda, but certain to play an important role in the discussions are the issues of Communism and Colonialism in the western hemisphere.

Chile, Paraguay and Cuba have expressed hope the conference will take a stand against Communist infiltration in the Americas.

Some members have contended it is preferable to have each nation settle its own Communist problems.

Secretary of State George C. Marshall was greeted with Communist posters depicting him as a Nazi when he arrived here yesterday. One set read "Heil Marshall" and was decorated with Nazi Swastikas. It was the only Communist manifestation.

Use Heavy Guard

A heavy guard was thrown around the Presidential palace as delegates arrived. Officials said they feared a possible Communist demonstration.

Sovereignty disputes between Britain and three Latin countries have spotlighted the territorial issue.

Argentina and Chile are involved in a dispute with Britain over claims to a portion of the Antarctic. Argentina contests British rights in the Falkland Islands. Guatemala has renewed her 100-year-old claim to British Honduras.

Provisional President Romulo Betancourt, Chief Venezuelan delegate, said his nation would demand that all colonies of foreign powers in the Americas be given a chance to free themselves through plebiscites.

The United States and Brazil believe controversies involving such colonies should be solved by negotiations outside the conference and within the United Nations charter.

Says West Must Soon Go East For Its Oil

Cleveland, March 30 (AP)—A current surplus of production in the Western Hemisphere probably will be wiped out by 1951 or 1952, S. A. Swensrud of Pittsburgh, executive vice president of Gulf Oil Corp., declared Monday.

In an address before the Cleveland Petroleum club, Swensrud said that by 1955 the Western Hemisphere would need a half million barrels of oil a day from the Eastern Hemisphere, mostly from the Middle East.

"So far as the United States is concerned," he said, "By 1951 it most likely will be having to receive more than a half million barrels a day net imports and by 1955 will probably need upwards of a million barrels a day net imports and by 1955 will probably need upwards of a million barrels daily."

The Gulf executive said "perhaps less than a half of that amount" may be expected from South America.

REFUSED FIFTH TRIAL

West Chester, Pa., March 30 (AP)—George W. Balles, Jr., Monday was refused a fifth trial on a charge of attempted assault. Balles was ordered by Judge Ernest Harvey to appear for sentencing in Chester county court next Monday.

Littlestown

Littlestown.—The Brownies held an Easter Egg Hunt Monday afternoon in Crouse Park. Four prizes were awarded to those who found certain marked eggs. The winners were Lorraine Snyder, Betty Reaver, Suzanne Long and Audrey Ellen Brumbach. Mrs. Leonard Kerchner, Mrs. Ralph Reaver, Mrs. Lloyd Crouse and Mrs. A. C. Richards were in charge of the hunt.

Cub Pack No. 84 held an Easter Egg Hunt Saturday morning, in the parish house of St. John's Lutheran church instead of outside the parish house because of inclement weather. Approximately 30 boys participated. The den mothers, Mrs. Leonard L. Potter, Mrs. Ernest R. Sentz and Mrs. Kenneth D. James, in addition to Joseph Selby, a den father, Mrs. Selby and Preston Crabbs, father of one of the cubs assisted with the hunt. Prize eggs were found by Fred Miller, Larry Sentz, Jack Stiles, James Hahn, Donald Kump and Dean Selby. James Bowers won the prize for finding the most eggs.

NLRB RULING SOUGHT BY 13 HANOVERIANS

Harrisburg, March 30 (AP)—Thirteen Hanover borough employees asked the state Labor Relations Board today to decide they did not violate a new anti-strike ban in seeking a wage boost last month.

The borough workers, in the first petition of its kind to the labor board, said they were "off work" from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m. one day in February in "trying to find out" why council granted them five cents an hour instead of the 10 cents they requested.

A 1947 law bans strikes by public employees and provides that those engaging in walkouts are barred from receiving wage increases for three years. Civil Service rights of strikers are suspended for five years. The law defines "strikes" as "failure to report for duty, the willful absence from one's position and the stoppage of work."

Hearing April 7

The same law, however, grants

public employees the right to seek adjustments of grievances without jeopardizing their jobs.

The Labor Relations Board set a hearing on the case for April 7 at Hanover.

The borough workers, in their petition, said they had been receiving 70 cents an hour and asked an increase of 10 cents an hour. They added that Borough Manager Chester A. Eckbert told the council the men would take five cents and that council acted accordingly.

The petition asserted the workers "did not strike, have no intention of striking and the whole matter was a misunderstanding among the borough manager, the council and the employees."

It added that the Hanover council is willing to give the additional five cents an hour but is prevented by the 1947 law unless the Labor Board finds there was no strike.

The petition was signed by John Fuhrman, David Musselman, David Musselman, Jr., Richard Lawyer, Lester Lawyer, Charles Fuhrman, Richard Blair, Curwin McMaster, Thomas Huff, Brook Long, Joseph Hewitt.

10 Firemen Injured In School Blaze

Doylestown, Pa., March 30 (AP)—The Richboro Junior High school in Northampton township was damaged yesterday by a blaze that threatened for awhile to spread to adjoining buildings.

Ten volunteer firemen were injured slightly and six others were overcome by dense smoke as 16 fire companies fought the blaze.

The blaze, which caused damage to 10 classrooms and offices, gained headway as firemen were hampered by a lack of water. Cause of the fire was not determined immediately.

ESSO STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA ANNOUNCES PRICE REDUCTIONS ON MORE THAN 350 ESSO PRODUCTS

The following reductions are effective at once.

Heating Oil and Kerosene.

A special summer "fill-up" discount to September 1st of 7/10 of a cent per gallon below our regular price at time of delivery.

(NOTE: This is to accomplish a double purpose. First, it means dollar savings to our customers. In addition, it should help in the vital job of getting every oil user to have his tank full when cold weather comes. Full tanks at the start of the heating season will help substantially by lessening the effect of transportation and distribution difficulties during the winter months.)

Bottled Gas. (PROPANE)

A reduction of 1/2 cent per pound in cylinders to all customers.

Farm Tractor Fuel.

A reduction of 1/2 cent per gallon.

Roofing Asphalts.

A reduction of 5% in all grades.

Industrial Lubricants.

More than 325 industrial lubricants, greases and cutting oils reduced by varying amounts up to 25%.

Our gasoline prices are not being reduced. These prices have been held behind the trend of prices generally and are low today as compared to prices of almost all other commodities.

Altogether, we estimate these price reductions will directly benefit more than 1,000,000 consumers of Esso products. Indirectly, these reductions should help to reduce the cost of living for many millions of people.

For further details, get in touch your regular supplier of Esso products.

BOGOTA CONFAB IMPORTANT TO WESTERN UNITY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

The Inter-American conference which is opening today in ancient Bogota, Colombia, is regarded by many diplomatic observers as the most important meeting of its kind since the initial session at Washington in 1890 when the Pan-American Union was organized.

Its importance lies in two reasons: (1) The world crisis caused by the fight between Bolshevism and Democracy calls for an overhauling of hemispheric solidarity; (2) Latin America is on the move and has the urge for economic and political development.

There are many subjects on the agenda, but in the main they can be summed up under three objectives:

1. To increase economic cooperation among the 21 nations.
2. To reorganize the 58-year-old Pan-American Union as a regional branch of the United Nations.
3. To set up machinery for settling disputes among American nations.

Seek "Little United Nations"

In short, the conference is aiming at the creation of what has been described as the "little United Nations" of the western hemisphere. And that's a mighty interesting development when you consider the budding union of western European nations, since the two groups presumably will complement each other indirectly.

So the Bogota Conference takes in a wide range of economic, political and military questions. From the standpoint of the Latin American countries the economic aspect is the most important. They have come to the time when they want to develop their industries, whereas their economy thus far has been based on their role as suppliers of raw materials for the big industrial nations.

Colonial Dynamite

This economic urge naturally involves outside capital, and that presumably would come largely from the United States. These economic desires have met with general approval from Washington and private capital in the United States. However, America is asking that the Latin countries remove existing restrictions on freedom of action by foreign enterprises. These restrictions are hampering foreign investments which the U.S.A. would like to see. A heavy argument may develop over this at Bogota.

Another issue which is full of dynamite is the demand in important Latin American quarters for abolition of colonialism. Involved in this are the claims by Argentina and Chile to Antarctic territories which Britain also calls her own. Then there is the red hot dispute between Guatemala and England over British Honduras which Guatemala claims. Indeed, the argument involves all the colonial possessions of Britain, France and the Netherlands, including the West Indies, and such big areas as the three Guianas which now are largely undeveloped but undoubtedly possess vast riches.

BARNEY ROSS IS IN G.W. LEGION

New York, March 30 (AP)—Barney Ross, former boxing champion and Marine Corps hero, has joined the George Washington Legion, an organization of American volunteers recruited to fight for the Jewish state in the Holy Land.

The 39-year-old Ross held the lightweight, junior welterweight, and welterweight titles before serving in the Pacific area with the marines. On Guadalcanal, he won the Silver Star and Presidential citation for gallantry.

"It's high time something should be done for our people in Palestine," Ross said yesterday. "Jews can't hope to be at ease here if there is unrest over there. I'm ready to leave immediately if so ordered."

More than 1,000 men, mostly World War II veterans, have volunteered in the last 10 days. Major Samuel Weiser, commander of the Hebrew Legion in England, said.

Weiser said he hoped to recruit a division of 15,000 to 20,000 men. The recruiting, he added, will be accompanied by a drive to raise between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 to buy equipment for them.

Desilting Keeps Schuylkill Clear

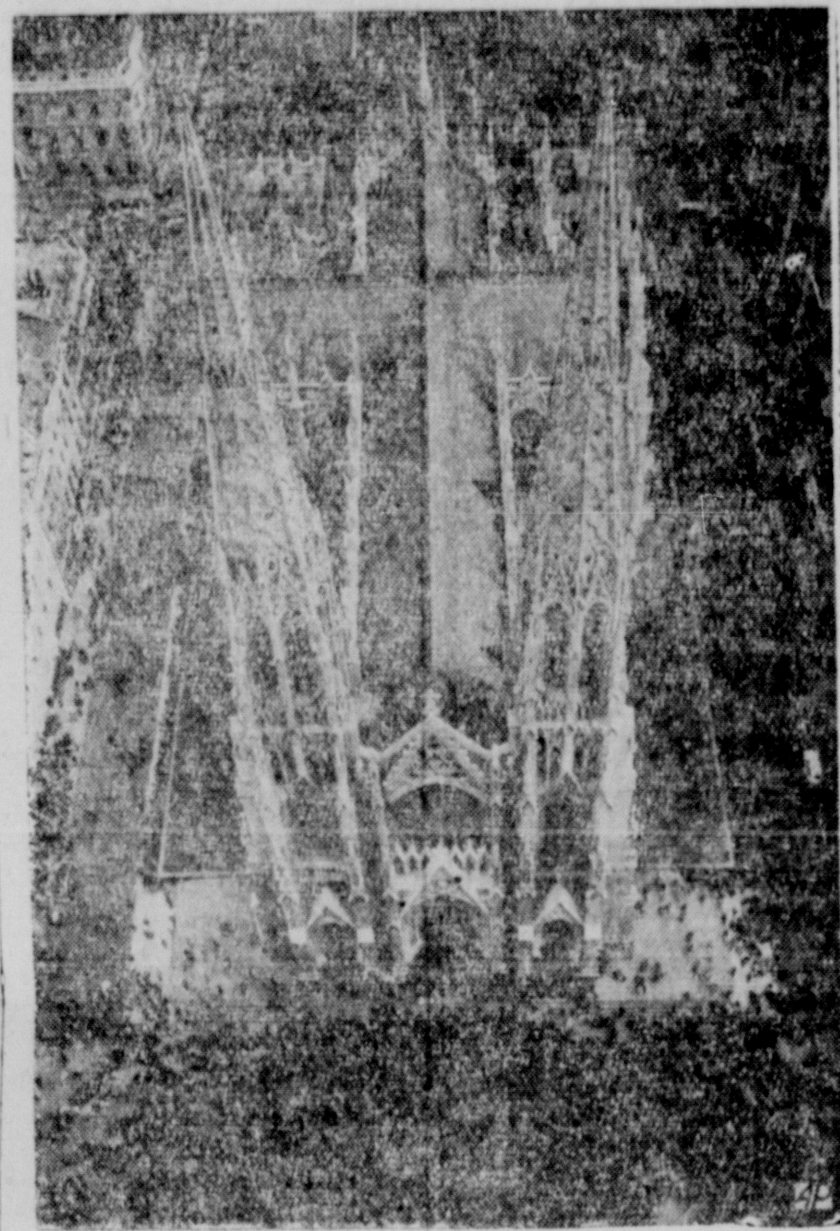

Harrisburg, March 30 (AP)—The State Sanitary Water Board said today desilting operations of coal companies are keeping an estimated 2,000,000 tons of fine coal and silt out of the Schuylkill river each year. The board said this tonnage represented two-thirds of the smaller sizes of coal and silt which formerly were washed into the river and its tributaries.

The comment was made in connection with a report by Schuylkill river engineers that the proposed clean-up of that Eastern Pennsylvania stream will be a waste of money unless the dumping of mining wastes is "effectively stopped."

"Neither the construction of the desilting works in the river, nor the removal of the accumulations of silt in the river channel should be

Emmitsburg

Emmitsburg — The Parent-Teachers' association will hold its annual party on Thursday in the school auditorium. The returns from this activity are to be used for the athletic fund.

The second meeting of the Mother Seton Guild, sponsored by the juniors, was held last week in the auditorium. A short play, "Paca Street," was presented by members of the junior class. The cast was as follows: "Mother Seton," Julia Arnold; "Cecilia O'Conway," Marianna Wetzel; "Aninna Seton," Bernadette Arnold; "John Eager Howard," ex-governor of Maryland, Guy Baker; "Mrs. Howard," Eileen Wetzel. The program was well received by the audience. The April meeting will be under the chairmanship of the sophomores.

Members of the senior class are giving attention to orders for name cards and graduation invitations for the June commencement.

A talk was given to the students by Father McSorley, O.M.I. Father McSorley had been for some years on duty in the Philippine Islands and told many interesting facts about his experiences there.

The Easter recess for the high school will end today.

The children of the parochial school were given a holiday from March 23 until March 31.

The Emmitsburg fire company responded to a call on Saturday evening about 8:30 o'clock to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Warthen to extinguish a chimney fire. No damage was done by the fire.

Witnesses Fail To Appear In B-L Probe

Philadelphia, March 30 (AP)—Attorney General T. McKeen Chidsey has asked that three important witnesses in the state's probe of the sale of closed Building and Loan assets be held in contempt of court for failure to testify.

The three subpoenaed to testify yesterday were George J. Mallen, former special chief deputy attorney general assigned to the state Banking Department's closed Building and Loan division; Vincent P. Duff, president of Independent Management Corp.; and James M. Hogan, former title search clerk in the department's closed Building and Loan division.

Mallen now manages the Independent Management Corp., a collection agency for companies handling the assets of the defunct B&L associations.

Actress Leaves 3rd Husband For First

Hollywood, March 29 (AP)—Actress Lois Andrews and her first husband George Jessel, went night clubbing Sunday and today she had separated from Hubby No. 3, Actor Steve Brodie, on a "trial basis."

Miss Andrews and Jessel went to a night club after they gave their daughter, Jerrylyn, an Easter party. As to the separation from Brodie she said:

"It's just a temporary thing, at least as far as I'm concerned. A lot of little things were coming up when we were together. Maybe we can work them out apart. At least I hope so."

She and Brodie were married in Tijuana, Mexico, 18 months ago. Her second husband was Singer David Street.

Miss Leahna, Mt. Hope; Roy E. Metz, and daughters, Mary Jean and Nancy, Virginia Mills, attended revival services at the Evangelical United Brethren church, Middleburg last Friday evening. Rev. Funk assisted with revival services the past two weeks at that church.

The engagement of S/Sgt. Louis

Mondorff to Miss Danner of Upper Marlboro, has been announced by Miss Danner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Danner. The wedding will take place on April 3. At present S/Sgt. Mondorff is spending a 45-day furlough with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Reeves Blandford, of Upper Marlboro.

Holy Week services at St. Joseph's Catholic church were largely attended, especially on Easter Sunday morning when the church was filled to capacity. The solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Gerald Curran, assistant pastor, assisted by Rev. Francis Stauble, deacon, and Rev. John Sullivan, sub-deacon. A large number of altar boys were present in the sanctuary. The main altar was trimmed with lighted candelabra, palms, white lilies and white snapdragons. Practically all who attended the masses on Sunday received Holy Eucharist. The choir under the direction of Mrs. Euphemia Rotering, organist. Solos during the mass were sung by Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Joseph Wivell, Anna Mae Welty and David Arnold. Other parts of the mass were sung in duet by Mary Teresa Topper and Mary Teresa Houck, in trio by Mrs. Charles E. Eckenrode, Dolores Joy and Margaret Houck.

Herbert A. Glass, who has been spending a 10-day furlough at his home near Emmitsburg, has returned to duty on the U.S.S. Nipmuc at Newport, R. I., preparatory to sailing for Europe.

Capt. F. D. Kime, U.S.N., and Mrs. Kime and daughter, Miss Mary Ann, of Fort Monmouth, N. J., were visitors recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Combs.

Those who were present recently at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Peters where a family reunion dinner was served were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peters, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jones and daughter, Sharon, of Waynesboro; Edward Valentine of Chambersburg; Kenneth Vaughn of Harney, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfe and Mary Theresa and Barbara Peters.

Miss Norma Flax was bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Fay Nussbaum to George Harman, both of Union Bridge. The ceremony was performed on March 20 at Uniontown by Rev. Hoke.

Mrs. Roy Bollinger left on Thursday evening on a 10-day excursion by bus from Hanover to Florida. Mrs. Bollinger will return home on April 4.

Asks World Treaty To Safeguard Press

Geneva, March 30 (AP)—Hector McNeil, British Minister of State, Monday proposed an international treaty to safeguard the freedom of the press.

Such a treaty, McNeil said, "could mark a decisive step forward in guaranteeing the fundamental right of human beings to seek freedom of expression."

The British draft convention largely followed one proposed to the United Nations conference on Freedom of Information here last week by the United States, but it was more detailed and more far-reaching.

White House Denies Big 3 Meet Plans

Washington, March 30 (AP)—The White House said Monday that no "Big Three" meeting is in prospect and President Truman has no plans to leave the United States.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross made this assertion to a news conference. He had been asked about a report out of London that Mr. Truman, Soviet Generalissimo Stalin and British Prime Minister Attlee might meet in Berlin.

Ross said that beyond denying that a "Big Three" meeting is planned, he could not add to what Mr. Truman himself has said on numerous occasions.

Mr. Truman has said repeatedly that he would be glad to see Stalin and Attlee in the United States, but that he has no intention of leaving the country for any such conference.

ITU WILL SEEK STRIKE PEACE

Hammond, Ind., March 30 (AP)—Early renewal of contract negotiations designed to settle strikes of APL printers against several of the nation's newspapers appeared certain today.

The AFL International Typographical Union said new contracts are to be offered publishers of the struck newspapers by all striking local unions and will comply with a federal court order. This will mean fewer union demands.

There was no immediate comment from publishers of the struck newspapers on the ITU's announcement of its plan to end the current work stoppages. Strikes are in progress in at least eight cities. The biggest is in Chicago where printers struck last November 24 against the city's five major dailies.

Still On Strike

The printers are not expected to return to work during the new contract negotiations, a union spokesman said.

The ITU announcement yesterday followed a conference of union attorneys and officials and counsel for the National Labor Relations Board in the chambers of Federal Judge Luther M. Snyggert.

The conference was held after Judge Snyggert had refused to stay enforcement of an injunction he issued Saturday forbidding the ITU from causing printers' strikes that violate the Taft-Hartley law. Union attorneys said they planned no immediate appeal of the injunction.

The injunction will be in effect until the NLRB rules on the government's charges that the union violated the Taft-Hartley act.

The ITU and counsel for the NLRB said in a joint statement "the union will immediately take steps to comply with the decree during the life of the injunction and until the final order of the NLRB."

Philadelphia, March 30 (AP)—Principal Charles H. Williams told Benjamin Franklin high school students today that armed guards will patrol the school unless a suspected arsonist is apprehended. "There is no question in my mind that a pyromaniac set the two fires here yesterday," Williams said during an assembly meeting.

News Briefs

Vienna, March 30 (AP)—The Interior Ministry said Russian soldiers killed three Austrians with machine pistols last night in a dance hall fight. Nineteen were wounded.

The shooting occurred at Josefberg, 45 miles south of Vienna, in the Russian occupation zone.

Moscow, March 30 (AP)—Pravda said today a German spy ring financed by American military intelligence and German industrialists is working in the Soviet occupation zone of Germany.

The Communist party newspaper quoted a special correspondent from Berlin as saying the group was headed in Germany by one Gerhard Pinkert. Pravda identified Pinkert as a former Wehrmacht colonel and former commander of a regiment in the Brandenburg Division.

Rome, March 30 (AP)—Italian party leaders, disturbed by two political killings in the leftist north yesterday, arranged to meet tomorrow to seek remedies for a rash of violence which threatens their campaign drive.

Communist Umberto Terracini, president of the Constituent Assembly, who arranged the truce in an effort to bar bloodshed in the campaign for the vital April 18 elections, called the meeting.

Jerusalem, March 30 (AP)—An International Red Cross spokesman said today the Jews and Arabs have promised to observe the Geneva convention's rules of war.

Jacques de Reynier, the spokesman, said a Red Cross committee had met both sides and received

ON HONOR LIST

Miss Barbara Henderson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ira M. Henderson, Fairfield, has been named to the dean's honor list of Boston University's College of Physical Education-Sargent, for the first semester. An average of 3.3 is required to be named to the list, 4 being a perfect grade. Miss Henderson is a senior at the university.

oral promises. Written agreements are expected next week. De Reynier said he was "well received both by the Jewish Agency and by Arab leadership, including the Mufti."

CHIMNEY FIRE

The East Berlin fire company was summoned Saturday morning when a chimney fire broke out at the John Altland house on the Glendale fruit farm, northeast of East Berlin, formerly the property of Daniel E. Brandt. Although high winds created a potential hazard, persons at the farm had the blaze already under control before the arrival of the firemen. Little damage resulted.

RATION BREAD IN JERUSALEM

Jerusalem, March 30 (AP)—The Jewish community in Jerusalem began rationing bread today for the first time.

Jews said food supplies in their areas are "dangerously low." Bread has been scarce for several days. Bakeries have stopped offering cakes and pastries.

There appeared to be no similar shortage in Arab sections of this embattled city. The Arabs are supplied over open roads from Arab-held Eastern Palestine and neighboring Arab countries.

Jerusalem Jews had expected a food convoy from Tel Aviv today, but said its arrival was uncertain.

A group of armed Jews held up 20 army trucks loaded with 20 tons of white flour yesterday in the Petah Tiqva area. They escaped with the trucks, cargo, and the uniforms and arms of the military escort.

Arab fighters struck during the night at four points on Jewish supply lines to isolated settlements. Jews said there were casualties on both sides.

About two per cent of American homes which were wired for electricity had mechanical refrigerators in 1926 and about 72 per cent had them in 1942.

Tomorrow
ALUMINUM CAP
will protect your milk

Yes — tomorrow your milk will be sealed!

Our new paper-lined aluminum cap completely seals the top and pouring surface of the bottle. It will help to ensure that the pure, wholesome milk — pasteurized at the dairy — will remain clean and dairy-fresh until you are ready to use it.

We are always on the alert for new ways to give our customers a better product. Our new bottle seal is but one more step in that direction.

Healthy, growing bodies need plenty of fresh, rich milk. But — don't forget that milk also adds to health in adults.

May we have your milk order today?
